Spring Art Market at the Tannery May 12

40+ local art vendors, live music, fun for kids, and brunch!

SANTA CRUZ, CA — March 20, 2019 — The Tannery Arts Center hosts its Spring Art Market on Sunday, May 12 from 10am until 5pm. This year's market is on Mother's Day, showcasing close to 50 art vendors, live music, activities for kids, food and libations. The market will feature Tannery artists as well as local artisans. Tannery studio artists will open their doors to sell directly from their creative spaces, and many outdoor pop-ups along the campus promenade will house a variety of vendors including jewelry and ceramics, textiles and leather, glass, photography, and mixed media. Featured artist vendors include Honora Bacon (Pottery), Michael Lopes (Photography), Noelle Correia (Mixed Media Collage), and Gary Ingram (Jewelry).

While visiting enjoy live music from Sugar by the Pound, Wild Iris, and Body Language. Bring your kids, friends...or your mom. There will be face painting, hands on crafts, and more.

"The Spring Art Market has always been a great time to showcase the work of local artists on this beautiful campus," said Tannery Director, Jim Brown. "We are excited for this Mother's Day event where families and friends can shop, eat and be creative."

The event is free and open to the public. Free parking. The Tannery Arts Center is located at 1050-1070 River Street, Santa Cruz, CA 95060
